The Carlington Bike Park

On Wednesday September 28, City Council approved a partnership with the Ottawa Mountain Biking Association (OMBA) for installation of a mountain bike pump track and skills area in neighbouring Carlington Park. The park is currently used by many Copeland Park residents, for a variety of other purposes.

While the OMBA's application was for a multi-phase bike park, the City approved only the first phase of the project. Many questions remain unanswered about the current and future phases.

During the Council Meeting, Councillors Wilkinson, Chernushenko, and El Chantiry spoke in favour of a relationship with the OMBA. Councillors Egli, Chiarelli, Fleury, Quadri, and Brockington questioned various elements of the proposal. Staff from Parks & Recreation, and Planning & Growth Management provided answers that did not fully address all the concerns. When the Mayor called the vote, only Councillors Chiarelli and Egli voted against the motion.

While recognizing the health benefits for those who participate in mountain biking, your President has been working with the Friends of Carlington Park, to identify common issues and concerns that may affect Copeland Park: increased vehicles (traffic & parking) on Clyde and Castle Hill, signage requirements, conflicting priorities between mountain bikers and other users (dog walkers, people walking and jogging, other recreational bikers, and various naturalists such as bird watchers).
